INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

COPPER RIDGE RV PARK

Marcus & Millichap is pleased to present Copper Ridge RV Park, a 49-space RV park located in Hearne, TX, just 15 minutes north of Bryan/College Station along Highway 6. Park amenities include high-speed internet and a clubhouse with three washers and dryers and three bathrooms with showers.

The park is offered at an 8.90% capitalization rate with an estimated net operating income of $124,574. Current monthly rates are $425, with electric billed back to tenants, alongside weekly rates of $225 and daily rates of $40. The park historically operates at approximately 80% occupancy.

The total property spans 9.6 acres and includes a 7,640-squarefoot warehouse that can be purchased together with the RV park for an additional $1,050,000 to the $1,400,000 RV park offering. If sold independently, the RV park will be parceled out on its 6.3-acre tract.

A value-add opportunity exists through the addition of up to 11 spaces on adjacent vacant land, supported by the existing septic infrastructure. The park operates on city water and two 2,000-gallon septic systems and is currently managed by an on-site tenant who maintains the grounds in exchange for a complimentary space and $1,500 per month. The manager is willing to remain post-sale.

Please do not visit the property without prior approval. All tours must be scheduled through a Marcus & Millichap agent.

MARKET OVERVIEW

HEARNE, TEXAS

Hearne is a historic Central Texas community located in Robertson County with a population of approximately 4,790 residents. Known as the “Crossroads of Texas,” Hearne occupies a strategic position at the intersection of Texas Highway 6, U.S. Highway 79, and U.S. Highway 190, while also serving as a major rail junction where two Union Pacific Railroad lines converge. Situated within 200 miles of approximately 80 percent of Texas’ population and just 18 to 25 miles from Bryan-College Station and Texas A&M University, Hearne benefits from exceptional regional accessibility and proximity to one of the state’s fastest-growing educational and economic centers. This advantageous location continues to support commerce, transportation, and industrial activity throughout the area.

The local economy is supported by a diverse mix of education, manufacturing, healthcare, public administration, transportation, and retail employment. Major employers include Hearne Independent School District, the City of Hearne, Altra Couplings (Altra Motion), and Legend Oaks Healthcare and Rehabilitation. Hearne’s extensive rail infrastructure and central location within Texas further support industrial and logistics-related activity, while nearby Bryan-College Station provides access to a highly educated workforce, major healthcare systems, and the economic influence of Texas A&M University. Combining small-town affordability with strong transportation connectivity and access to regional demand drivers, Hearne continues to offer attractive opportunities for residents, businesses, and investment.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Strategic Central Texas Location: Positioned Within 200 Miles of Approximately 80 Percent of Texas’ Population
- The “Crossroads of Texas”: Located at the Intersection of TX-6, U.S. 79, U.S. 190, and Major Union Pacific Rail Lines
- Proximity to Bryan-College Station: Just 18 to 25 Miles from Texas A&M University and Regional Employment Centers
- Diverse Economic Base: Supported by Education, Manufacturing, Healthcare, Transportation, and Public Services

Information About Brokerage Services

11-03-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
 - A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.
- A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):
- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
 - Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
 - Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
 - Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant options or advise regarding the property or real estate transactions generally; and
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.

Before showing a residential property to an unrepresented prospective buyer, a license holder must enter into a written agreement contains the information required by section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. The agreement may not be exclusive and must be limited to no more than 14 days.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
